

HS 200 - Environmental Studies

[1 lecture missed. Keep in mind that at least some of these are discussions first, lectures next. Treat it like HS 305]

The carrying capacity is a genuine problem.

Japan - there are 22 huge solid waste disposal plants. They're converting waste to wealth.

- Positive externalities
- Negative externalities

there can be market failure in either case. The government has to intervene.